Admission Requirements

If you've completed any postsecondary education — whether it's one course, a diploma, or a degree — you're considered a transfer applicant.

To be eligible for admission, you must meet both of the following:

Professional experience

Bring at least three years of full-time work in a justice- or public safety-related field. Your real-world experience is the foundation for your academic success.

Postsecondary education

You've either:

- Completed a recognized college diploma in an academic field with a minimum 70% average, or
- Finished at least 10 university-level courses with a minimum 65% average

Meeting all admission requirements does not guarantee admission.

Are you a justice professional without a completed diploma for admission consideration?

Please contact Admission Services at admissions@guelphhumber.ca for advising.

Credit for Previous Education, Professional Work Experience & Training

All successful applicants are eligible to receive 7.0 or 9.0 credits towards their degree.
